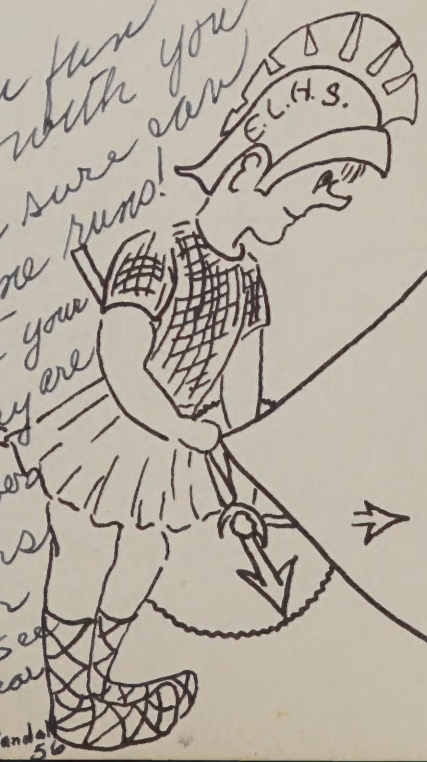
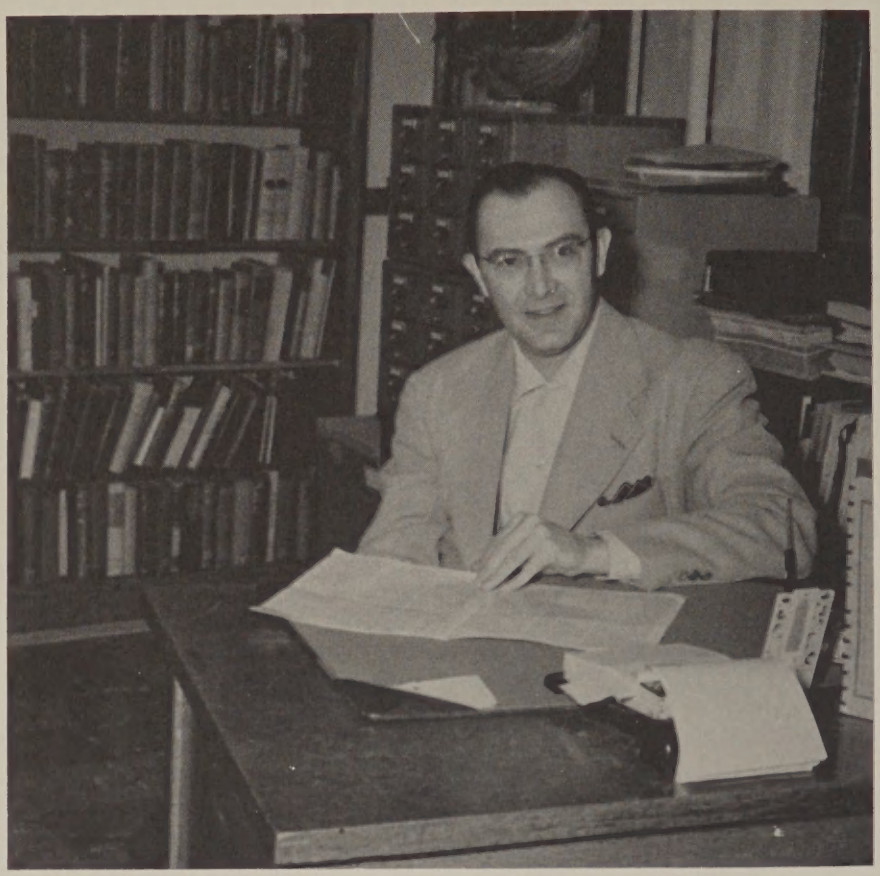
EAST LANSING HIGH SCHOOL

EAST LANSING, MICHIGAN



DEDICATION



MR. ERCELL PULLEY

You have been our teacher, our sponsor, and our friend... you have willingly given your time and advice to aid us... you have ever stood behind us in our triumphs and in our crises...now we, the Senior Class, are proud to dedicate most respectfully and affectionately to you, the 1954 Ceniad.

SENIORS

Cynthia
Keep all your enthusiasm all through high school - it's a valuable thing ... work hard for Trumpet, too; be good, though, it's worth it, I think, from what people say -
Love fun,
Ann Tuby

Cynthia, I don't know what we would have done without your talent work in the copyreading department. Of all the copyreaders you were the only we could always depend on. Keep up the good work (and all that rot)

See you,
Alan

CLASS OF '54

Well, Lord Trojan of Troy, to begin your visit to East Lansing from the past, you are going to have the chance now to relive the story of one of the greatest classes in E.L.H.S.'s history, the Class of '54. It was six, long, eventful years ago that this energetic group of Trojans signed the register at E.L.H.S. The progress that they have made is quite evident today.

They began their first year under the leadership of Charles McCaffree, Fred Wagner, Nancy McDonald, and Jim Faust. The first year faded into the next, and they found themselves in the eighth grade working under the guidance of Charles McCaffree once again, along with Bob Powell, Marcia Grimes, and Marilou Mausteller.

Junior High was soon just a memory, and there was something much bigger to look forward to. The class of '54 met their first social obligations in Senior High by giving their Freshman dance, "Bums Delight," and a square dancing Christmas party. In the field of school government, Joe Sherman and Steve Lamphear represented their class in Student Council, and the officers who so ably led the class through this year were Bob Perry, Bob Powell, Janice Noble, and Marilou Mausteller.

The old earth took another twirl and they were back again, this time as a Sophomore Class. The ideals of this class were expressed to the Student Council by Marilou Mausteller and Steve Lamphear. They were not to be outdone in the field of sports. Phil Wood and Steve Lamphear were on the varsity football team, while Charles McCaffree reported to the varsity basketball squad, and Bob Perry was a second year varsity man in golf. The highlights of the year from the social point of view were the "Holly Hop" and the annual Soph Prom, "Sous l'eau," French for under water. Guiding the class were Joe Sherman, Janice VanDer Jagt, Kathryn Hildebrand, and John Winburne.

Fall came around again and they returned, this year as Juniors. To start the year off, Steve Lamphear served as vice-president on the Student Council with Donna Reuling, Brian Elmer, Tom Kerrey, and Phil Wood representing the class. The fairer sex took over the leadership of the class this year with Marilou Mausteller as Madam President. Working along with her were Bob Powell, Kathryn Hildebrand, and Bill Roy. The Junior boys were found participating enthusiastically, not only in football and basketball, but also in tennis, track, golf, wrestling, and baseball. The social light shone on the attractive J-Hop, "On The Town," on February 21, and on April 9 and 10, the curtain rose on the Junior play, "Our Miss Brooks," the first successful two night comedy. Climaxing the prosperous year was the annual Junior-Senior Banquet on June 4.

Once again summer faded into autumn, and old E.L.H.S. opened her doors to welcome the Class of '54 back again. They entered proudly, bearing the long-envied title of Seniors. The quartet of officers chosen to lead them through their final year were Don Young, Bud Young, Janice VanDer Jagt, and Kathryn Hildebrand. Standing by with a helping hand and good advice were Miss Stophlet and Mr. Pulley, the class advisors. Steve Lamphear took over the leadership of Student Council, assisted by Barbara Kohl and Brian Elmer, plus an underclassman. Representing the class were Don Young, Donna Reuling, Marilou Mausteller, Lew Kerans, Dave Dethmers, and Brian Elmer. The Senior boys made a fine showing in the sports world all year. The highlight of the football season was the Homecoming Dance. Found reigning over the gala event were Queen Janice Noble and King Steve Lamphear. On November 13 and 14 the Class of '54 presented the highly successful Senior Play, "Gramercy Ghost," under the direction of Mr. Richard. The main goal of this class was to earn money and a few of their projects were, the magazine drive, paper drive, rummage sale, and the Sock Hop. At last their goal was reached and the Senior Trip was underway. The three day cruise on the Great Lakes with stops at Chicago and Mackinac Island was well worth all the hard work. The last big social affair was the Senior Prom on May 23. White dinner jackets, swirling formals, and colorful flowers set the stage for the most wonderful dance of the year. Bringing their high school careers to a close were the Junior-Senior Banquet, Baccalaureate, and finally, Commencement.

Now, Lord Trojan, don't you agree, after hearing their history, that the Class of '54 has come a long way since their first year at East Lansing High School? With a twinge of regret they are leaving these hallowed halls now, yet they will never forget the six happy years spent here. As the Class of '54 goes out into the world as young men and women, they will look back on their high school days at East Lansing with fond memories and a feeling of gratitude for the part it played in their lives.

Tony Trojan occupied a front row seat at "Gramercy Ghost", this year's Senior Play, which was presented November 13 and 14 under the direction of Mr. Richard.

The story concerns a soldier, Nathaniel Coombes, played by Harold Butt, who was killed in the Revolutionary War while trying to deliver a message. He became a ghost--doomed to linger around the place where he had been killed.

As the play opens, Nancy Willard, played by Nancy McDonald, inherits Nathaniel Coombes from Miss Bullock, who was the only person who could communicate with Nathaniel. When she died, she left Nathaniel to Nancy to straighten out her life. Instead, the ghost complicates it by falling in love with Nancy who is engaged to Parker Burnett, Jim MacDonald. Everyone except Charley Stewart, a newspaper man, played by Brian Elmer, thinks Nancy is drunk when she sees ghosts. Irv and Rocky, John Howell and Tom Dietrich, are ghosts who try to get Nathaniel into Heaven by appealing to General Washington. Finally they receive a decision that Nathaniel can enter Heaven if he digs up the message and gives it to a descendant of the person to whom he was supposed to deliver it. Charley fulfills these requirements, the descendant being Parker Burnett. The spell is broken, Nathaniel goes to Heaven, and Charley marries Nancy in a happy ending. Margaret Collins, Miss Bullock's housekeeper, was Barbara Reineke. Judy Harris played Miss Bullock's attorney, Augusta Ames. Officer Morrison was played by Charley McCaffree. Suzanne Meyer and Sherry Kiepert were ambulance drivers; Nancy Gordon was a girl ghost, and Phoebe, Officer Morrison's wife, was played by Ann Tukey.

The Student Director was Judy Studt and the Student Producer was Dave Dethmers.

CLASS OF '55

Hey, Lord Trojan, wait a minute! I know you are in a hurry to go see the new class rings with the Juniors, but I wanted to tell you a few things about this class first. As you know, the Class of '55 will enter East Lansing next year as Seniors, and, looking back at this successful year, they certainly are well prepared for it. The leaders they chose to guide their class were Bob Edwards, Peggy Holcomb, Mary Hayhoe, and Tim Kraft. Their views on student government were well presented to the Student Council by Vice-President Bob Elliott, Bob Edwards, Judy Green, Dave McCaffree, Jean McElroy, and Nelda Trout.

Keeping their goal, the Senior Trip, in mind, these Juniors worked enthusiastically throughout the year on the magazine drive, hour dance, concessions, and their paper drive. The boys took an active part in football, basketball, baseball, wrestling, tennis, track, and golf, while the girls were found participating in various clubs and organizations.

The biggest social event of the year was, of course, the annual J-Hop, "Sayonara," held on the evening of February 6. The Japanese theme was very effectively carried out by exotic murals and oriental lanterns, and it is needless to say that a good time was had by all.

The footlights shone on the talent of the Junior Class on the evenings of April 9 and 10, when they presented their play, "The Cuckoo on the Hearth." This successful mystery comedy was under the direction of Mr. Warren Richard, along with assistant director Peggy Holcomb and assistant producer John Lundberg.

It's too bad you missed the climax of this eventful year, Lord Trojan, the Junior-Senior Banquet held on June 10, because I'm sure you would have enjoyed it. The Class of '55 is, of course, grateful for the advice and help given them by Miss Newhouse and Mr. Smith, the class sponsors.

And now that you have heard their history, don't you agree, Lord Trojan, that if they continue next year as they have in the past, the Class of '55 will be an extremely successful Senior Class? Better rush now or you'll miss out on your class ring.

CLASS OF '56

Say, Lord Trojan, how do you like these fancy dance steps, the Bunny Hop and the Creep? I'm glad you were able to attend the Soph Prom, for March 26 was certainly a memorable evening and dance. Its name, "Coral Reef," and the theme were effectively carried out by the beautiful blues and greens of the under-water scenes. The other social event of the Class of '56 was the gala party, "First Frost," held November 20.

These were just two of the many activities of the class this year. They were busy with the magazine drive, their hour dance, bake sales and football concessions. The Soph boys took an active part in sports with John Hecko and Gordon Steckle reporting to the varsity football team. Cheerleading and various other clubs and activities took up a good deal of the girls' time. All in all, it was a busy year.

The student leaders of the class this year were Bill Cutler, John Kerrey, Emily Derr, and Diane Dennington. Their views on school affairs were brought to the student council by Bill Cutler, Doug Smith, Scott Herrick, and Ed Reuling. Always on hand to offer their help and advice were the class sponsors, Miss Thelen, Mr. Ganakas, and Mr. Meulendyke.

I know, Lord Trojan, after attending that terrific Prom, that you'll be in hearty agreement with me that the Class of '56 has a wonderful future in store for them in the next two years at East Lansing.

CLASS OF '57

Attending an hour dance is a new experience for the Freshman class, just as well as it is for you, Lord Trojan. But they certainly have done an excellent job of organizing it, don't you think? This was not the only successful money-making project of the Class of '57. They made a fine showing in the magazine drive, bake sales, and the highlight of the year, the Freshman dance "Bum's Rush", a hard times sock hop held on January 8. The main attraction of the decorations was a huge tramp and his dog in the center of the gym along with tin cans and the kids dressed in old clothes and socks to effectively carry out the theme.

The year was not all fun, though, for the Class of '57 worked very hard in the field of school government. They were ably guided in this field by Todd Rueling, Jack Klewicki, Susan Powers, and Mary Jean Campbell, their class officers. The Freshmen were well represented in Student Council by Paul Keeslar, and Susan Skarstad. In addition to this, they organized an Advisory Board composed of fifteen members whose main purpose was to deal with class problems.

All in all, the first year in Senior High was very successful for the Class of '57. Part of this is due to the fact that they had extremely helpful class sponsors, Mrs. Grim, Mr. Casebere, and Mr. Stowe. Whatever the reason, let's hope that their enthusiasm and school spirit continues throughout their high school careers.

IN MEMORIAM

DIANE RINKES

This page is dedicated to Diane Rinkes, a member of the Sophomore class, who will long be remembered for her friendly smile and cheerful personality.

Diane was born May 19, 1938, and died September 25, 1953, while cheering her team on to victory.

It is with much sorrow that her friends continue on through high school without her. Now for those who were her best friends, and those who only knew her name, you and I present our sympathy.

Hi Cynthia,

Glad to see that you got into choir. (But I knew you would) I will be seeing alot of you next year. It sure has been fun having you out here at E.L.H.S. As soon as you came I could see a change in old E.L.H.S. I have had a lot of fun with you in High school choir the few times that I have been there, but brother wait until next year I will be there all of the time. (Heaven forbid). I sure have enjoyed knowing you this year. Lots of luck to a realitive, and sweet gal.

As always

Your friend and -mine

Adah [illegible]

P.S. Have fun this summer, don't do anything [illegible] do. Take it easy on the boys.

JUNIOR HIGH

CLASS OF '58

I see you're reading the latest edition of the Junior Hi Roundup, Lord Trojan, or should I use your new nickname Tony? Anyway, these eighth graders are pretty good newspaper men and women, don't you think? This class paper is only an example of the success the class of '58 had in its second year at East Lansing.

Starting the year off, they elected David Clanahan, Russel Kropschot, Janet Gibson, and John Mason as their class officers. They made themselves heard in Student Council through David Clanahan, Jane McCann, and Jerry Peters. The eighth graders worked energetically all year on the magazine drive, after-school sales, and in various clubs and other activities.

They kept step with the social activities during the year too, starting out with their gala December party, "Winter Wonderland." March 5 found them attending "Pacific Paradise," with palm trees, flowers and sport clothes carrying out the theme. There was a lot of hard work in both events, but the rewards were worth it.

Working hand in hand with the class were Mrs. Meulendyke, Mrs. Cann, and Mr. Tanzer, the class sponsors. The Class of '58 did have quite a successful year, didn't they, Tony? If they keep up the good work, they'll make a fine showing in their first year in Senior High.

7TH GRADE

Now, Tony, we have reached the youngest of the members of East Lansing High School, the class of '59. Don't let their youth fool you; for a seventh grade class, they have done very well for themselves during their first year.

Starting the year off under the guidance of Mr. Budde, Mr. Worden, and Mr. Sullivan, the class sponsors, they held their first big school election. The results were as follows: President, Warren Wagner; Vice-President, Sharon Turk; Secretary, Zaiga Kuze; and Treasurer, Dave Kinnerson. In addition to choosing their first class officers, they appointed Bob Turley and Marcia Van Der Jagt to represent them on Student Council.

An example of their ambitious nature and also of their desire to start earning money for that all important Senior trip was the "Junior High Roundup". This was the successful Junior High Newspaper edited cooperatively by the seventh and eighth grades.

In addition to these, there were many other activities and sports to keep the class active all year. The year was not all work and no play, though, for on November 6, a delightful evening was spent at a party given by the P.T.A. Following this was the annual seventh grade party on April 23, a gala affair indeed. Well, Tony, it was quite a year for these up-and-coming Trojans, wasn't it? And if they continue as they have this year, there is no doubt that the class of '59 will make quite a name for thenselves at E.L.H.S.

CENIAD STAFF

Say, Tony, here's a group
you've yet to meet,
Ready, willing, and hard to beat.
Jump off your horse and take a look At the Ceniad staff who planned this book.

They had a lot of fun, but troubles too,
In producing this book for me and you;
And now that their work is completely done
You'll be able to meet them one by one.

First comes Judy, our Editor-in-Chief;
She shared our joy as well as our grief.
With her ability to guide us through
This book was made a pleasure to do.

Make-up Editors
Marilynn and Ann Worked very hard on the lay-out plan.
They set up our book
from beginning to end,
Time and energy they were willing to lend.

Checking details to make sure they were all complete,
Copy Editor Judy Studt
couldn't be beat.
Writing class histories was Editor Betty May,
The job kept her busy for many a day.

CENIAD STAFF

Working on activities of this school year,
Our pair of editors deserve
a cheer.
Alan and Dave toiled very hard,
On organizations they really starred.

Fred and Don were
Editors of Sport.
From football and wrestling
to the tennis court,
They were always on hand to watch and keep score
As they wrote up athletic events galore.

Editors-at-Large with a helping hand,
Donna and Marilou were in great demand.
Whether their tasks were large or small,
They did their best to help us all.

Our Business Managers
were Bud and Paul;
During the year they were always on call.
Cash and receipts were
their special work,
In effort and energy,
they did not shirk.

A talented trio, our Editors of Art
Showed a lot of ability right from the start.
Nancy, Barb, and E'Laine
with their drawings so neat, Did their part to make our book complete.

CENIAD STAFF

Our Society Editor was Mary Ann Steele,
On the Senior Sign Board
she did a great deal,
While pictures were taken by George and Bob;
As photographers, they did a fine job.

Our photography committee was kept on the go Putting in snapshots to look just so.
Marjorie and Janice,
with Carole helping too,
Assisted in bringing this book to you.

The Special Committee was composed of nine;
Miniature pictures took up their time.
Two Marys, two Marcias, and
Sue Ann Jean,
Norna, Leon, Sharon and
Paula's work was keen.

Sandra was chairman of the typing committee,
Which included Marlene, Pat,
Stewey, and Kitty,
Ditter, Karen, and Patti
we must not forget,
A lot was accomplished
whenever we met.

Mr. Hazard, overseeing the outcome of this Ceniad, Cheerfully gave his help in situations
good and bad.
We are also grateful
to Mrs. Grim,
For so ably assisting him.

Now, Tony, your introduction to our group is complete,
And you've heard how they accomplished this remarkable feat.
Back in Troy you'll have so much to tell,
Of this Ceniad staff who did so well.

The work was hard, but the reward worthwhile,
And memories of it will long bring a smile.
We now feel proud and
happy, too,
In presenting this '54
Ceniad to you.

COACHES

MR. WORDEN'S tennis teams are almost always tops in the Twin Valley. He has done much to bring tennis into popularity at E.L.H.S.

MR. GANAKAS coaches varsity basketball and reserve football. Mr. Ganakas' boys always have fine team spirit.

MR. ADAMS met the challenge of athletic director and came through in fine style. He also teaches aspiring freshmen the fundamentals of football.

MR. PEPPLER coaches almost every boy in the school, for he teaches physical education as well as being head football and baseball coach. He also coaches reserve basketball.

MR. MEULENDYKE serves as assistant football coach in the fall and freshman basketball coach in the winter.

MR. SULLIVAN coaches the wrestling teams which are always top contenders for the state title. He also coaches the golf team. (absent)

MR. TINKLE did well at his new post of track coach. The team won their first dual meet in quite a few years under Mr. Tinkle's guidance. (absent)

BACK ROW: Mr. Peppler, Coach, B. Distel, B. Powell, T. Kerrey, S. Lamphear, G. Spanos, P. Wood, L. Kerans, D. Young, Mr. Meulendyke, Coach. MIDDLE ROW: R. Atkinson, K. Slotnick, G. Montgomery, S. Foster, D. Spanos, B. Seble, D. Beyer, G. Steckle, L. Watson. FRONT ROW: J. Atkinson, B. Perry, B. Blakeslee, T. Kraft, S. Price, J. Hecko, D. Mc Carty, D. Shepard.

This year's varsity football team under the reins of Coach Albert "Pat" Peppler had an average record consisting of 4 wins and 4 setbacks. Although having an average slate, the team was much better than the record shows.

The season was a story of ups and downs. The Trojans tied for fourth place in the Twin Valley League with 3 wins and 3 losses. The team split a pair of non-conference games with Mt. Pleasant and Brighton.

East Lansing opened the season with a 2nd half loss to Mt. Pleasant, a top class B team in the state. The team returned home to lose in the last 45 seconds to Marshall. The Trojans got on the winning side of the column with a solid win over Adrian and in turn were drubbed by Albion. After winning three in a row from Coldwater, Sturgis, and Brighton, respectively, they lost a close and exciting contest to Battle Creek Lakeview, the Twin Valley champs. Tony Trojan enjoyed all the games.

Coach Peppler received very able assistance from Mr. Meulendyke, backfield coach, and Mr. Ganakas, reserve coach. They also shared the scouting duties.

Seniors who are graduating and will be sorely missed next year are Bob Powell, Phil Wood, George Spanos, Lew Kerans, Bob Distel, Tom Kerrey, Don Shepard, Steve Lamphear, Bob Perry, Dave Mc Conkey, Don Young, Dick Mc Carty, and Jim Atkinson.

Making the all conference team were George Spanos on defense and Steve Lamphear on offense. In addition, Ken Slotnick and Phil Wood received honorable mention.

PHIL WOOD - Tackle
A stalwart in the Trojan line for two years, Phil was always a rough-tough type of a player. In his Senior year he received Honorable Mention in the Twin Valley.

LEW KERANS - Guard
Lew played one of the most important positions on the team, a pulling guard. His blocking moved many of the opponents out of the way during the year.

BOB POWELL - End
Bob was East Lansing's signal caller this year and was a very capable field general. His steady pass-catching pulled the Trojans out of many holes. Bob was selected for the first Lansing All-City Team ever assembled.

GEORGE SPANOS
Tackle - Co-Captain
George was a standout in the Trojan line for two years. His great defensive play was a definite asset to the squad. In his Senior year, George won honors on the All-Conference Defensive Team.

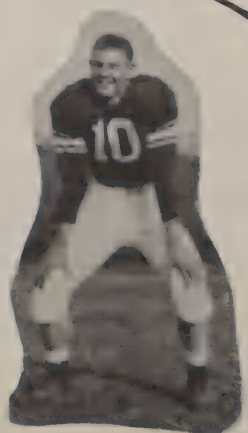
BOB PERRY - Quarterback
In East Lansing's offense the quarterback is one of the key blockers. Bob filled the spot effectively and was the reason for many Trojan gains last fall.



DON YOUNG - Fullback and Guard
Playing two positions can be very difficult but Don solved the problem easily. When he was in the game his efforts were well appreciated by everybody.

TOM KERREY-Guard
Tom is one of the finest offensive linemen East Lansing has had in many years. His speed and roughness were a great help toward the Trojan victories.

BOB DISTEL-Center
Bob's steady play was noticeable all season, especially when the going was toughest. His team spirit was an important factor in many games.

STEVE LAMPHEAR
Fullback - Co-Captain
Steve was one fo the most consistent performers on East Lansing's team and also a valuable team player. The Trojan's opponents always dreaded the time when Steve would carry the ball. He was highly honored in his Senior year by being placed on the All-Conference Offensive Team and also on several All-State Teams.

DON SHEPARD-End
Don improved rapidly during the season, and when it ended he had contributed greatly to the Trojan cause. His blocking opened many holes in the opponent's line.

JIM ATKINSON-Tackle
Jim saw limited action last fall but was a definite help to the team. He was always rugged when he had to be, which was quite often.

DICK McCARTY-Tackle
Dick was another player who saw limited action, mainly because this was the first year he had participated in the sport. Given more time, he would have gone far.

RESERVE FOOTBALL

FIRST ROW: J. Stanley, J. Robson, R. Distel. SECOND ROW: J. Kerrey, T. Turk, A. Mellios, D. Finley, T. Grimes, E. Reuling, D. Smith. THIRD ROW: Coach Ganakas, R. Bassemeir, D. Sackrider, S. Herrick, J. Hicks, J. Lundburg, Manager.

Reuling, B. Kenger, R. Holmes, J. Pease, J. Elliott, T. Derr, G. Griswold.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

FIRST ROW: G. Gainer, Manager; R. Hill, B. Powell, C. McCaffree, B. Distel, B. Wenner, T. Searl, Manager. SECOND ROW: Mr. Ganakas, Coach; G. Kowalk, S. Foster, G. Montgomery, F. Barton, A. Nedelman, J. Schell, K. Slotnick, B. Seble, D. McCaffree.

In the 1953-54 season the Trojan basketball team, ably led by coach Gus Ganakas, finished with a mediocre record of 4 victories and 11 defeats. The team was many times out-rebounded and out-shot, mainly due to the lack of height, but they were seldom out-fought.

The Trojans finished sixth in the Twin-Valley, made possible by a strong, late season finish, in which they won two out of their last three games. The team got off to a poor start by dropping six straight contests before they came up with two straight wins, over Adrian and Albion. The Trojans again got in a rut and fell short on their next four attempts before putting on their late spurt. Charles McCaffree was the team's leading scorer with a total of 135 points.

Graduating seniors who will be sorely missed next year are: Charles McCaffree, Bob Powell, Bob Distel, Ron Hill, Bob Wenner, and team managers Tom Searl and Gordon Gainer.

The East Lansing Trojan Wrestling team had a very fine 1953-54 season losing only to Class A Schools in dual meet competition. Led by Coach Pat Sullivan, the grapplers coasted to victories over Lansing Everett and Cranbrook, but lost a close match to Jackson. The Trojans ran into stern competition when they were pinned by Lansing Eastern, a top state power, but turned the tables by defeating Lansing Sexton, defending state champions, in the last match of the season.

Top individual performances were turned in by Bruce Blakeslee at 138 lbs., Steve Lamphear at 165 lbs., and Phil Wood at 175 lbs. Late in March, East Lansing enters the state wrestling tournament and should be the top Class B Team in the event.

George Spanos, Phil Wood, Don Young, Tom Dietrich, Steve Lamphear and John Howell will be conspicuously absent from next year's team, due to graduation.

VARSITY GOLF

FRONT ROW: J. Spencer, T. Grimes, S. Herrick, T. Turk.
BACK ROW: B. Perry, F. Wagner, J. Abbott, A. Nedelman.

Tony Trojan saw the links-men roll to an undefeated "53" season. Ably coached by Mr. Sullivan, they stroked out decisive margins over their foes in all seven dual matches. The four veterans of the team were Arnold Nedelman, John Abbott, Bob Perry, and Fred Wagner. All four lettermen are returning and the Trojans have their eye on the State Class "B" Championship.

The Trojan golfers placed second in both the Twin Valley and the Regionals this year. They were the sixth best class "B" team in the state. Arnold Nedelman was runner-up to the medalist in the State Finals with a sparkling 77 over a tough Jackson Cascades course.

There are quite a few reserves who backed up the varsity golfers this year. This should mean good teams in the future.

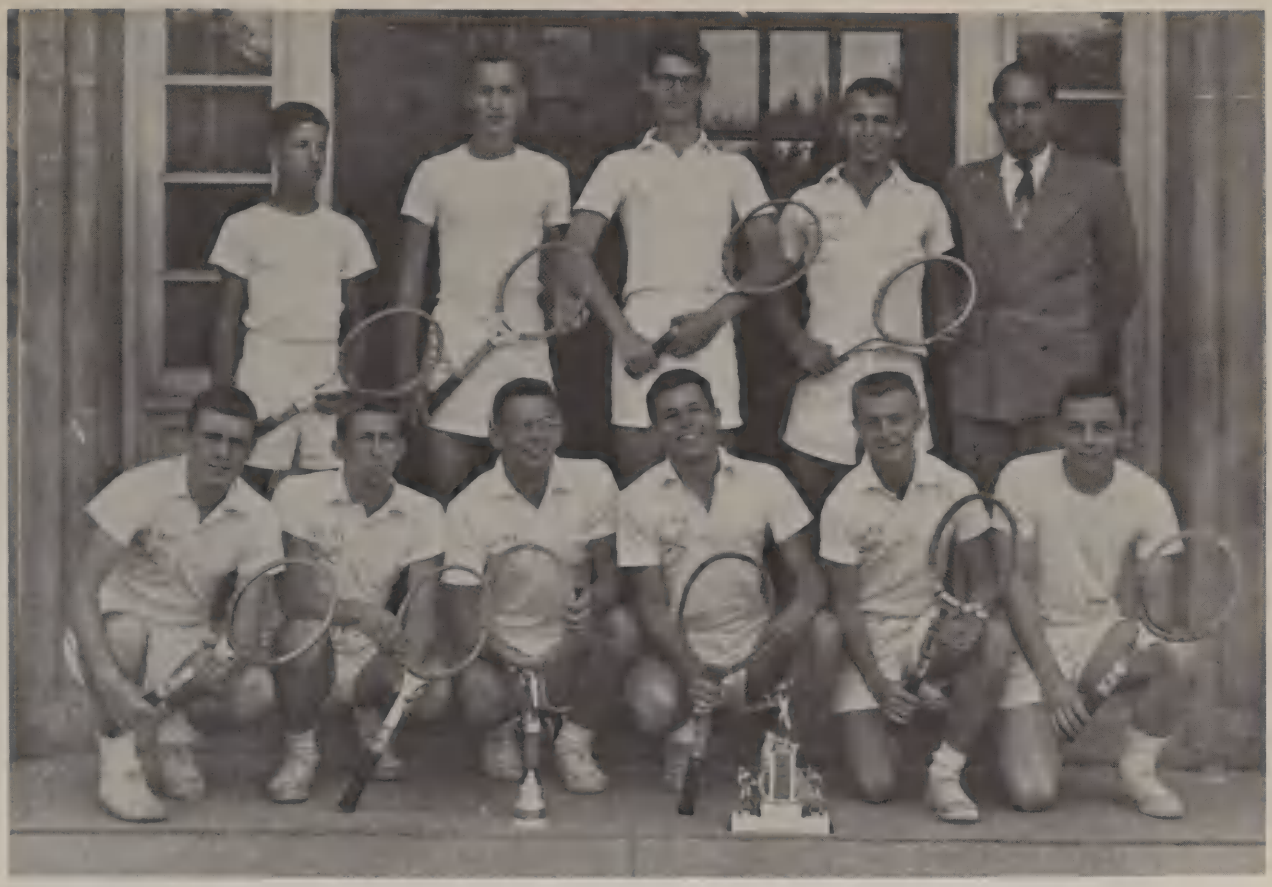
VARSITY TENNIS



BACK ROW: J. Gardner, B. Clifford, D. Hanna, J. Peters, Mr. Worden, Coach.
FRONT ROW: J. Robert, D. Smith, T. Masters, J. Leigh, M. Jones, R. Hill.

The East Lansing tennis team, under the able direction of Mr. Worden, fought their way to a fine 1953 season; just ask Tony Trojan. The Trojans played six out of ten matches with Class A schools. The racquet-swingers lost twice to Hamtramck, perennially the strongest team in the state, and twice to Owosso, also a tennis-minded school. Other opponents were Lansing Sexton, Midland, Adrian, and Battle Creek Lakeview. Our team was composed mostly of seniors. Don Smith, Tom Masters, Jim Leigh, and Bill Clifford played singles. Jack Peters, Dick Hanna, Mike Jones, and Joe Robert were doubles men. The only returning lettermen are Ron Hill and Jack Gardner, both of the singles department.

The high point of the season was the regionals, where East Lansing took first place with a total of 12½ points. Jim Leigh won singles honors, while Jack Peters and Dick Hanna fought their way to the doubles title. All in all the season was quite a success for Mr. Worden's boys.

THE RECORD

VARSITY BASEBALL

BACK ROW: Mr. Peppler, Coach; D. Best; J. Winegarden; D. Lyman; H. Schram; D. Rosenbrook; G. Westrom. FRONT ROW: B. Distel; G. Spanos; B. Powell; R. Atkinson; D. Spanos; K. Slotnick.

The 1953 baseball team ended the year of 5 wins and 9 losses in a very interesting season . . . and Tony witnessed every game. Coach Peppler's charges showed promise on various occasions during the rugged schedule. Mainly behind Denny Rosenbrook's pitching, the Trojans finished third in the final Twin Valley standings with a 4 and 3 showing.

East Lansing began the season on the wrong foot with a 4-0 loss to Eastern, a Class A school. Jumping into the Twin Valley, the team whipped Marshall 6-1, Three Rivers 2-0, and Adrian in a closely fought battle, 1-0. The Trojan victors set the stage for a showdown battle with a powerful Battle Creek Lakeview nine. The underdog East Lansingites fought an uphill battle only to have Lakeview salvage a 5-4 victory. Not fully recovered, East Lansing fell to Sturgis and was shut out by Albion 5-0. The season finale found the Trojans sneaking past Lansing Sexton in an 8-7 contest.

Lettermen which will bolster this year's team are Ken Slotnick, Bob Distel, Bob Powell, Ron Atkinson, Steve Lamphear, and George Spanos.

VARSITY TRACK

FIRST ROW: F. Gordon, D. McCaffree, O. Derr, E. Longnecker, B. Blakeslee, J. Schell. SECOND ROW: D. McConkey, J. Ketchem, A. Burmester, D. Riggs, B. Riggs, G. Gainer, D. Price, B. Richardson. THIRD ROW: J. Stanley, E. Reuling, J. Hicks, S. Carl, A. Murphy, P. Skamser, C. McCaffree. FOURTH ROW: B. Elliott, D. Ousterhout, D. Finley, P. Wood, F. Barton, P. Blagdon.

The East Lansing Trojans won their first track meet in 4 years, solidly trouncing Holt 96-13, and on top of that, finished a very fine season with a record of 3 wins and a loss in dual meet competition. The victorious track team finished 4th in the Albion Invitational and 3rd in the Twin Valley Meet.

In his first year Coach Wayne Tinkle conscientiously tutored East Lansing to victorious heights on the track field. In addition to the fine team strength, the Trojans sprint medley team, consisting of Dick Riggs, Bob Riggs, Charlie McCaffree, and Bob Elliott, set a school record when they ran the event in 2:32.3. All through the year the standout performers were the sprint men, Bob Elliott, John Schell, Bob Riggs, and Dick Riggs. Doug Ousterhout did a fine job running the hurdles and will be missed next year.

All the Seniors were extremely valuable to the team and will leave a big hole in the lineup; but most of the members of the team were undergraduates and therefore East Lansing will be looking forward to another successful season in 1954.

ADMINISTRATION

Tony found Mr. Lee Kinney, Principal, Miss Dorothy Stophlet, Assistant Principal, and Mr. C. E. MacDonald, Superintendent, discussing administration problems.

Good luck!
Dorothy Stophlet

Next Tony enjoyed a friendly chat with Lyle Hare, Superintendent of Building and Grounds, and the custodians, Ed Lyons, Del Bangard, and Harold Shue.

Best Wishes
Del Bangard

Tony found the following teachers chatting over a cup of coffee after school hours: Warren Richard (Speech, English), Rose Johnston (French, Spanish, Mariam Grim English), Margaret Cuff (English), Isabel Pfeiffer (Latin), Patrick Hazard (English).

Enjoying an art exhibit are Joyce Nelson (Home Economics), Jeannette Thelen (Commercial), Lynn Adams (Manual Arts), Betty Demorest (Art).

Discussing school affairs in the library, we find Margaret Newhouse (Orientation), Ercell Pulley (Government and Economics), Hallie Smith (American History), and Alice Ludwig (Librarian).

Tony found Sam Knox (General Science), John Sebeson (Chemistry, Physics), William Steiner (Vocal Music), and Edward Graper (Biology), enjoying a good story.

It sure has been fun working with you this year. Don't do too much trotting around the Gym next year!

S. Hill

Tony Trojan overheard a discussion one day between these teachers; Albert Peppler (Physical Education), Gus Ganakas (Mathematics), Sarah Hill (Physical Education), Jim Meulendyke (World History).

Here, two members of the faculty look over a good book. They are Donald Miller (Science), and Richard Snook (Instrumental Music).

Nice to have you, Cynthia - to know the young cousin. Stay on with the Trumpet, keep your grades up, so in two years I can give you an award. I'll be thinking of you on Saturday. Best wishes. Florence May Findley Seriously conversing are Robert Stowe (Mathematics, Driver Education), Florence M. Findley (Geometry), and Clifford Worden (Mathematics).

Comprising the Junior High staff are Pat Sullivan, Nancy Meulendyke, Jules Tanzer, Ray Budde, Marjorie Cann, all teachers of English-Social Studies.

Dear Sis:
There is so much I'd like to say and so little time to say it in. I hope you have enjoyed your first year at E. J. H. S. as much as we have enjoyed having you here. Choir has been even though old cacm sometimes does get pretty mad at times. I hope Mr [redacted] Howdon stays for a little while longer than he plans and comes back and visits us he goes. I hope he comes back and visits us real often. I hear that you are doing a real bang up job in choir and that Mr Steiner really thinks a lot of you. I hope you have loads of fun this summer. Lots of luck to a real swell gal with a good personality and a super alto voice. Congradulations on making the mixed choir

Cynthia,
I sure have enjoyed being in Geo with you. You're a very pleasant person to be around. I made it. Just thinking forward to being in Trig with you & have much success. Good luck to a real nice girl
Linda Nugent

Dear Cynthia,
I'm glad I got to be in Geometry with you. I hate to see it end. It's been fun. Good luck in Trig. Keep smiling.

Merry X-mas

Hi Cynthia

You told me to write a whole page so I'm going to try. Congratulations on getting into choir even though I knew you would get in. Since I am listening to the speeches is it okay if I finish it tomorrow in School. I want to thank you all for leaving me so much space. Since there isn't much room I won't be able to write a whole page. By the way what's the idea of wearing my blouse today. It's funny we both wearing it the same day. You're really a wonderful girl and I wish you luck always. Let hope next year when I'm in senior high we can get to know each other better. I still say you sang an D below middle C yesterday but I think all you needed was a good warmup. Good luck in choir next year and I wish Mr. Smook would let you belong to orchestra next year. If I could I'll get in we could have fun. Have loads of luck next year and the years to come and have fun this summer.

Dear Cynthia,

Dear Cynthia,

It's been fun being in English with you this year and I hope I get in a few of your classes next year. Best of luck always.

Dear Cynthia,

I'm certainly glad I got to know you, you're lots of fun. I enjoyed being in 7th hour Biology with you. It was a real bread on the trip to Battle Creek - how's your seat? We've gone a long way together - on the way home. I hope we will have a couple of classes together next year. Have fun this summer at camp and be sure not to let your voice rest. Congratulations on getting into Choir.

Love,

Janet

P.S. Thanks for getting my Period signed for me and watch out for my germs.

Cynthia,

Good luck on the Geometry exam and during Summer Hours.

Tony Langhorn

Dear Cynthia ——

I'm glad that I got to know you this year, but I hope that I'll see more of you in the future. Good luck always

Vicki

Cynthia -
I guess we didn't expect such a whirlwind rush at us when we came in the door, but I'm glad to sign your yearbook -
May you remember until you can't remember at all your friends, teachers, and happiest days at E.L.H.S (even if it is a school).
If Mr. Knox (Sam) ever read this, he'd say I haven't written anything at all, and you know - he's right.
Did you know Mr. Hoyard is going to give you an "F" this semester? - I didn't either. I guess I had better let someone else write something in here before I take up the whole page!
Anyway I can't think of anything to say so I wouldn't say anything - (all I've been doing is wasting paper, ink, and time. Goodbye now -

Betsy Robson

P.S. Hurry up with the music will you? Hurry! Hurry! Hurry!

Best Wishes
Virginia Trexler.

Dear Cynthia,
I really enjoyed working in the operetta you are really a great help, keep up the good work and you'll really go far.

Fred Macrae

Dear Cynthia,
You're a swell person, and I'm glad you made choir. You did a swell job on the operetta. Have fun this summer, and be good.
Lots of luck and love

Dear Cynthia,
I'm so glad I met you this year! You're a real swell kid. We really had a time in Geometry this year didn't we. Lots of luck, success and happiness in all you do!
Love
Diane D.

Dear Cynthia,
Best of luck to a girl with a very bright future.
Jan D.

Cynthia
I sure had a wonderful time at your slumber party. I'll never forget it. Hope to see you this summer.
By, Donna Lou
P.S. Glad you're in Choir.

Dear Cynthia
Use, we sure had some time this year.
Have lots of fun on that picnic. Etc. ya later.
Have fun testing me. Etc. ya later.
the summer.
Love
Joyce (Carol Ann)

Dear Cynthia,

Boy, we have sure had fun with ole Steiner haven't we? Keep up your good attendance at church, that's Quite a record! Let's have loads of fun up at camp this summer. I'm sure we will with you up there. You're really a great girl. Say hello to your Mom from my Mom! Ha Ha!!

Good Luck ALWAYS to A REAL NICE GIRL!

Love
Bob

Dear Cynthia,

Biology class has been twice as fun with you in. I know you pretty well but I hope to know you better as time goes on. I hope to see you this summer as well as next fall. We Episcopalians must stick together!

Love,
Suzee.

DEAR CYNTHIA,

IT'S BEEN FUN KNOWING YOU IN G.H.S. GEE EVEN though I HATED the Chorus.

BEST of LUCK to a REAL SWELL girl.

TAKE it EASY this SUMMER. But HAVE FUN.

Dear Cynthia,
It has been nice knowing you this year. I hope we know each other better next year and all the other years. Good Luck.
Joanne Huffman

-Cynthia-
It's been lots of fun being in History class with you this year. Lots of Luck to a swell girl.

Duncan Douglas J

Dear Cynth,

I'll always remember our baseball days. Not because I want to, mind you, but my shin is like this now. If you remember, you knocked my bones around a bit. Hope you make good in Choir + remember dear old C.R.F. (Mr. M.), U.S. History.

Yours Murphy.
